Ant In the Dope

Videodrone

(videodrone)I would fast for days
And call you a god
I would do anything even say I'm in love
Just to penetrate between your open thighs
I would tell you anything just to get you tonight
`cause I've been waiting for far too long
And I've been anticipating just to get you aloneI just want you to know
You make me feel like I have no soul
All I seem to know
You make me feel like heaven's belowI would put you above everyone else
Even place you up on the highest shelf
Just to lay face to face for an hour or two
I would sell my soul, how `bout you?
`cause I've been waiting for far too long
I've been anticipating just to get you aloneAll I seem to know
You make me feel like I have no soul
All I seem to know
You make me feel like heaven's belowAll I know tonight, purity is far from sight
All I know tonight, sanity is far from sight
And all I know tonight
The devil is right here by my side
I search deeper every timeThe harder it is the more it feels right
I couldn't erase it if I tried
And she wrote
Antidote
And she wrote
AntidoteAll I seem to know
You make me feel like I have no soul
All I seem to know
You make me feel like heaven's below
