Only Human

Utopia

It's only human to despise the weak
It's only human to despise yourself when you're weakI don't know why
But that's the way that it's always been
And I play by the rules I don't understand at all, yeahIt's only human to be lazy and vain
It's only human to expect a world that's just as vainI don't know why
I want to believe that it's not that way
But I'm Johnny come lately, it's not my place to sayThere's no escape
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Tell me why do they try so hard?So I pretend that I'm invincible
That I can go it all aloneBut I'm only human trying to get by
And praying to heaven I might find out
Why am I human, mere flesh and blood
Afraid to go on without someone to hold me upIt's just a human thing to fear the unknown
But isn't it a tragic thing to live and die aloneOh Lord, look at the world
Have you ever seen so much misery?
Like a ghost ship of fools, lost and floating on the seaThere's no escape
(Sea)
Tell me why do they try so hard?And they climb and they fall
Yet they struggle on the same faultBut they're only human trying to get by
And praying to heaven they might find out
Why are we human, mere flesh and blood
We're afraid to go on without someone to hold us upTrying to get by
And praying to heaven
Know why, tell me why
Why am I human, mere flesh and blood
Afraid to go on without someone to hold me up
