Sands of Time

Edguy

Seasons come and seasons go
Here I wait for something to be
Try to get as much as I can see
Hungry for life
But have you see the sands of time
Every day is a moment in past
Every heartbeat a step to my last
I won't surviveI don't know what time is made to be
If it is a friend or enemy or does it only run
Run to set and end
Secrets of a crazy dream or just a bad
Reality, I don't knowDo you feel the sands of time
Runnin' low to break the line
First we learn to fly, then we learn to cry
Later in the evening we will dieQuestions roamin' through my brain
I'll be leavin' into a grave
I'll be dead but my soul will be save
For a time called forever
