

Forget2ForgetU

Nick Fradiani

Woke up on Sunday morning
Started to cross off my list
Changed all the locks on the doors
And packed up the rest of your shit
I got rid of all of your pictures
Dumped all your wine down the sink
Finally signed up on Tinder
And swiped right on everything
Wasn't until I was having a drink or too many
Then I remembered the one thing that I didn't do
How could I forget, how could I forget to?
Why'd I forget, forget to forget you?
How'd I forget?
How could I forget to forget to forget you?
How'd I forget, how could I forget to?
Why'd I forget, forget to forget you?
How'd I forget?
How could I forget to forget to forget you?
Wish I had amnesia
'Cause I don't want to need ya
I even deleted your dirty pics off of my phone
My friends got me drunk at the strip club
Bought me a dance or two
While she was shaking that big butt
All I could think of is you
How could I forget, how could I forget to?
Why'd I forget, forget to forget you?
How'd I forget?
How could I forget to forget to forget you?
How'd I forget, how could I forget to?
Why'd I forget, forget to forget you?
How'd I forget?
How could I forget to forget to forget you?
Wasn't until I was having a drink or too many
Then I remembered the one thing that I didn't do
How could I forget, how could I forget to?
Why'd I forget, forget to forget you?
How'd I forget?
How could I forget to forget to forget you?
How'd I forget, how could I forget to?
Why'd I forget, forget to forget you?
How'd I forget?
How could I forget to forget to forget you?
(Forget to forget you)
Forget to forget you
(Forget to forget you)

Forget to forget you
(Forget to forget you)
(Forget to forget you)
