

beds and dishes

Anois

I tried to escape
In the early dawn
But, if you had seen
    What I had done
You would have changed your colours soon
    That would have broke my healthy heart
I wondered if you could stay for some weeks
    Cleaning dishes and cooking meals

Take good care of my bed
    Took me one
    So, I didn't leave
    In the early dawn
    I looked after you
    Counting one to two
I lit your bath and polished shoes
And when your face, jumped once to move
    I remembered going back to you

I go back to you
I go back to you
