Pirateâ€™s Lullaby

Pat Razket

Pirates Lullaby

Bu hu hu they are coming for you
I can see three pirates on the ocean
Bu hu hu they are coming for you
I can see three pirates on the ocean
The first one lost his eye
The second lost his sense
The third one will show no emotion

Go kiss your jewelery farewell my dear
Go hide you blaggard there Ì•s no use to fight
Doubloons and pesos will all go I fear
Leave this place while the day is bright
They aim to pillage and the cross is here
They leave no swags as they set sail
No time to morn so save your tears
For the dead men leave no tale

Yo ho ho we are coming for you
We are pirates of the ocean
Yo ho ho we are coming for you
There Ì•s no place to hide you will die tonight

If you are wealthy they will find you first
They smell their way to a coffer of gold
If you have rum they will quench their thirst
And leave no quarter thatâ€™s what Iâ€™m told
I hear the shanty from across the sea
I hear the cannons they are close my lad
So flee my heartie hereâ€™s no place to be
And say goodbye to mom and dad

Yo ho ho we are coming for you
We are pirates of the ocean
Yo ho ho we are coming for you
There Ì•s no place to hide you will die tonight

I see the fire they have reached our shore
I hear the screams, the buckles and sword

Ainâ€™t no us in lockinâ€™ no doorâ€™
If you donâ€™t die they will take you aboard

Yo ho ho we are coming for you
We are pirates of the ocean
Yo ho ho we are coming for you
There Ì•s no place to hide you will die tonight
