White Light

The Apache Relay

White light, of a sudden star
Shine bright, if I run too far
Too far from my mind, further from my one true line
Its hard for my kind, harder still to seek and never findSweet saturn star, fallen so far
Show me the way, out of the darkShadows, shadows of my doubt
Demons, I will cast them out
Begone from my mind, lead me through the great divine
The scar in my side, plea for you to hear my crySweet saturn star, fallen so far
Show me the way, out of the dark
Sweet saturn star, fallen so far
Show me the way, out of the dark
