Shave

Sky

I was worried about it
Until someone told me not to be
I had reason to doubt it
It was taken from meYou heard me shout it
And now everybody seems to be
They're concerned about it
For their white rose crunchiesStop sniffing 'round me for your earth bound wishes
It isn't always as it seems to beHe was hoping the ties would offer grace
Said, "A drop dead reason to die was all he gave"
Somebody arrived in front of my cave
And he stopped enjoying the lies in time to shaveIt's my feeling about it
That I never should've taken it on
They told me to count it
But they knew I'd trust themI wanted to ride it
But now everything I had is gone
Was some crazy diet
But she did look lovelyStop sniffing 'round me for your earth bound wishes
It isn't always as it seems to beHe was hoping the ties would offer grace
Said, "A drop dead reason to die was all he gave"
Somebody arrived in front of my cave
And he stopped enjoying the lies in time to shaveCome on, yeah, yeah yeahHe was hoping the ties would offer grace
Said, "A drop dead reason to die was all he gave"
Somebody arrived in front of my cave
And he stopped enjoying the lies in time to shaveHe was hoping the ties would offer grace
Said, "A drop dead reason to die was all he gave"
Somebody arrived in front of my cave
And he stopped enjoying the lies in time to shaveHe was hoping the ties would offer grace
Said, "A drop dead reason to die was all he gave"
Somebody arrived in front of my cave
And he stopped enjoying the lies in time to shave
