Finest Ones

Rakim

Where the ladies at?
Clark world baby
Uh, uh
It?s the R baby, it?s the God baby
It?s the R baby, it?s the God baby
It?s the R baby, it?s the God baby
It?s the R baby, it?s the God baby
I got rhymes, I love to bust looking for a club to rush
It?s like thugs will rush the illustrious
We all love to touch the voluptuous
It?s a must that we lust, plus we love to crush
Women pose, from timberland?s to feminine clothes
Check there portfolios and put 'em in centerfolds
Pen explode, draw crowds respond reel
I stay calm as hell surrounded by bombshells
Careful as I get near 'em, stand near and compare ?em
Or all girl heir 'em, I?m the man with the serum
Assets, probably dressed but still bear ?em
It seem like they wear ?em, just for me to tear ?em
In quakes I see more things shake then spring break
It?s like a dream state, perfect shape same date
You got a lot to give and look how hot it is, you so provocative
And it?s your prerogative, baby bounce
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones
New York, L.A., Atlanta, V.A., Miami, D.C., tell me
Bon jour, baby here go my brochure
Give me a phone call, I?ll show you the whole store
It?s so raw, I?ll have your world in all
You wanna know how much the whole package go for?
My spectacles, like a festival, it?s majestic, special guest for you
Ready to party hard the party?s in yards to the mardy graud
Rap say on?s, please give you a body massage
Rock jams, have you hot in your pants and nasty
Forbidden dance with me, or tickle your there see
Let ra take you on a ron day vue
Couple of days will do if it?s okay with you

Deserted isle style middle of winter with no bed
I?ll comfort you like you were Jennifer Lopez
You get what you deserve if I said we swerve
I?ll hit more than nerve and that?s my every word
Baby bounce
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones, Houston, Philly
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones
Baby you wake up the next day laundry negligee
Give you a sex ex ray before we catch the rays
Let?s blaze a lot more games left to play
While you still amazed from yesterday?s escapades
Steadily show my pedigree so thoroughly
To the B O N E like chemotherapy
Sex and triple X you ready to wed next
Relax baby you need plenty of bed rest
You?ve been a passenger of a high speed crash
With a wild style fashioner
Dark skinned ambassador, chiropractor with a passion
For smashin? your ass like a cardiovascular massacre
You?ve be through shock heading at your cu wop
Body's o hot, you need a shot from your new doc
With better cures where?s it sore I?ll wetter more
And let it pour from her to head to her particulars, baby bounce
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones, Detroit, San Fran
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones, Chi-town, Boston
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones, Cleveland, B-more
Ladies, nothing but the finest ones
The lavishest ones, the ain?t hard to finest ones
From the boldest to the shyest ones
Which city got the livest ones, Orlando, N.O.
