

Say You're Free

Goo Goo Dolls

I caught you stealing things you knew I'd give
But nothing seems to matter in your life
I come around to when I go to miss
But nothing seems to matter here tonight
And it's sad, I'm sorry
Guess you're going blind
Say you're free now, say you're free
'Cause tonight this might just mean the world to me
Say you're free now, say you're free
'Cause tonight this might just mean the world
Well, aware of what the answer is
But nothing means enough to fill that space
I'm still depending on the life of it
But honestly, it feels like such a shame
And it's sad, I'm sorry
Guess you're going blind
Say you're free now, say you're free
'Cause tonight this might just mean the world to me
Say you're free now, say you're free
'Cause tonight, this might just mean the world
Follow superstitions close
They never fade away you know
Your horoscope, your love is stoned
Let them go now, let them go
Say you're free now, say you're free
'Cause tonight this might just mean the world to me
Say you're free now, say you're free
'Cause tonight, this might just mean the world to me
Say you're free now
Say you're free now
Say you're free now
