These New Friends of Yours...

Paper Moon

These new friends of yours
Speak of ashes and dust
Where are they taking us?
Feels like the end but we're just beginningThese new friends of yours
Won't show their faces to me
They stand in shadows
But I can see they're always nearAnd I've no time for them
Can we leave them behind?
We'll lose them in the sunshineStanding right here
Saying the nicest things
Why won't you listen?
Why won't you listen?These new friends of yours
Speak of ashes and dust
Where are they taking us?
Feels like the end but we're just beginningAnd I've no time for them
Can we leave them behind?
We'll lose them in the sunshineStanding right here
Saying the nicest things
Why won't you listen?
Why won't you listen? ListenDo do do do do
Do do do do do
Do do do do do
Do do do do doThey teach you to dim
All the bright spots in your life
Steer into the dark and imagine
How bad it could be, could beI'm standing right here
Saying the nicest things
Why won't you listen?
Why won't you listen?I'm standing right here
Saying the nicest things
Why won't you listen?
Why won't you listen? Listen
