Beautiful

Noor Marji

Speak to me Through your tears Free me from the loss I feel And deliver me from fear Tell me how beautiful I'm supposed to be through the pain Tell me all my scars did not go in vain Show me how much you love me Keep a distance between the lies Hold me through the storm Till the pain is gone 'Cause I had no faith before And I have no faith anymore And all this time It took to keep me blind But all the scars that you left on me are beauty marks All the scars that you left on me made me beautiful And all the times you pushed me away Pushed me to where I stand today And all the scars that you left on me made me beautiful So don't deny me of the pain I feel Don't deny me of the dreams I made reality Don't deny me of the lies I feed myself Don't deny me, no, no, don't leave 'Cause I had no faith before And I have no faith anymore And all this time It took to keep me blind But all the scars that you left on me are beauty marks All the scars that you left on me made me beautiful And all the times you pushed me away Pushed me to where I stand today And all the scars that you left on me made me beautiful.

Lyrics Submitted by Emad Omran

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/