

Out of Mind

Magic Man

I've got to know you're coming back, saw you walking out into the rain.
But your shiver is a heart attack in a silence that I can't explain.

But you know when you're the first to go,
well, it's harder just to be alone.
Now we're fading like a photograph
and I'm scared that you're all I have,

Cos I know you
Oh, it's been a week since I fell apart,
they say it's getting better.
But if this is the end,
then when was the start?
They say it's getting better

I can feel it in my bones,
my sanity is on the line.
Well, I should've gone, I should've known that you're out of sight, out of mind.

Well I can't afford to lose the spark,
while you're keeping me out in the dark.
Now we're fading like a photograph
and I'm scared that you're all I have.

Cos I know you
Oh, it's been a week since I fell apart,
they say it's getting better.
But if this is the end,
then when was the start?
They say it's getting better
They say it's getting better

Oh, oh (x3)
They say it's getting better
Oh, oh (x3)
They say it's getting better

Cos I know you
But do you know me?

Cos I know you
Oh, it's been a week since I fell apart,
they say it's getting better.
But if this is the end,
then when was the start?
They say it's getting better
They say it's getting better

Oh, oh (x3)
They say it's getting better
Oh, oh (x3)
Cos I know you

I know (x3)
But do you know me?
you know, you know, you know, oh, oh
Do you know me?
