New Promise Land

Tragedian

I cant explain the feeling that i get at night
As i lay myself down to sleep
Dancing with the spirits that are cold as ice
Through the dark appears your lightWas this for real or a dream in time
Night after night i reach out for the light
Thats calling meCan you remember my name as i cross your mind
As our spirits meet at night
Across the oceans i fly to reach your soul
In your dreams youll hear my callWas this for real or a dream in time
Night after night i reach out for the light
Thats calling meOut into the night our spirits taking flight
Flying to the magic seas of our eternal dreams
Breakout from your soul reachout from my hand
Then you will know our new promise landWas this for real or a dream in time
Night after night i reach out for the light
Thats calling meOut into the night our spirits taking flight
Flying to the magic seas of our eternal dreams
Breakout from your soul reachout from my hand
Then you will know our new promise landPromise landOut into the night our spirits taking flightBreakout from your soul reachout from my hand
