

Here Comes the Fire (Hellfire Version)

Emil Bulls

here comes the fire - the cleansing fire now that all the damage is done your wretched soul is on the run riddled with guilt you wanna come undone let it in let the mourning come feel the heat

we all come to rearrange life yes we all come to rearrange we're the disciples of the flames we're acting in their name we are the nemeses of pain the cleansing from sin
we are the fire

you epitomize mankind's demise disguising hate as a social guy free from conscience faith and creed leave your burden to the fire's breed
feel the heat

the cleansing from sin
we are the fire
confutatis maledictis flammis acribus adictis when the wicked are confounded doomed to flames of woe unbounded [4x] now that the damage is done your wretched soul is on the run we're on red alert we'll come to rearrange all that's gone wrong we are the fire - the cleansing fire
