

Don't Know

Rotersand

so i guess i've had enough of waiting i got to go the night is up i see the dawn is breaking but there's nowhere i can go i don't know what to get, i don't know i don't see where it's at, i don't know i just left what is was right, i don't know painted black what was white, i don't know now i'm living in the land of promise I did not know your fake is real and my deceit is honest but there's nowhere i can go
