Stars (Hermigervill remix)

Quarashi

Yo, where you're going man? Com'on
You know what should be your next
Fix a job modified, fuck the compensation and extras
And all the conversations with social workers etc
You need to get some deeds done if you wanna get betterI bet that you sleep 16 hours out of 24
Wanna change things feels like nobody knows you anymore
Yeah, but I've known you since way before I got high with you
You're my friend till death do us part, I ride with youThere ain't no goods time no more, just the struggle for relief
Every time you decided you wanted credit, you were headed for grief
Man, it's a long way and if doing drugs was a test you'd skip forward
Race ahead so you'd be dead with the rest
So com'on nowLet's get the stars
Forget who we are
There's nothing to it
Let's get the stars
Forget who we are
There's nothing to itSo where you at now? Last I heard you was abroad
Used to be the ladies man
Now your set with several dealers and bras
They say, next time they meet you they Gonna reach you in numbersLike there's somebody you owe
Is that the reason you're staying under?
Used to have a lot of tight friends but now the bonds are losing
You know that shit ain't right man, I heard rumors confusingThey acting like they care about you and your predicaments
I'm sick of this bullshit, every other dude is a hypocrite
Man we had some good times, I hope you understand man
I had to leave you like I did but damn I made a good friendSo keep the champagne all nice
I'll catch you on the flip side when you make things right
So com'on nowLet's get the stars
Forget who we are
There's nothing to it
Let's get the stars
Forget who we are
There's nothing to itYou caught me pissing in the wind man but now I got the pool
I'm doing just splendid, how the fuck are you?
You see, I took the hatchet and cut my self loose
I got rid of all attachments and I'm back to peruseI've been doing this for to long to just give up and move on

And I'm rolling the dice now, right now too ruled out
So just cool now relax and kick in
And enjoy this life like it is while we still can
So com'on nowLet's get the stars
Forget who we are
There's nothing to it
Let's get the stars
Forget who we are
There's nothing to itLet's get the stars
There's nothing to it
Let's get the stars
There's nothing to it
