Sarah & Johnny

Submersed

She sat alone, weepin' on a stone
Findin' it hard to breathe
As she stared into the night
(Stared into the night)
Her heart too numb to feel the cold
Findin' it hard to breathe
Face to face with the moonlight
Tears rolled from her eyes to her lips
Feelin' of anger and dismay
Just one leap and her life she'll forget
It's too bad that she feels it's the only way
Before I say goodbye
Throw it all away
I'll remember yesterday
To go over my head
I still hold on to you
He sat all night, trying not to cry
His future heart seen
Should he stay with his family?
(Stay with his family)
Their hearts? too strong to let him go
Makin' it to hard to leave
A better world to chase a dream

Tears rolled from his eyes to his lips
Feelin' of anger and dismay
One wrong move and his life's thrown away
It's too bad that he feels it's the only way
Before I say goodbye
Throw it all away
I'll remember yesterday
To go over my head
I still hold on to you
Sometimes it's hard to realize
What's the right thing to do
But I know you'll find a hand
To light your way through this dark place
Before I say goodbye
Throw it all away

I'll remember yesterday
To go over my head
I still hold on to you
Before I say goodbye
Throw it all away
I'll remember yesterday
To go over my head
I'll still hold on to you
