

Can't Hold Back

Amber Pacific

I've come to accept
The fact from my head
I'm lost and alone in this life that I've led
I'll figure this out
It's summers away
A choice that may leave me with no room to say...If it happens it happens and I'll feel the same
Can't hold back on the choices I made...
If it happens it happens and I'll be the same
Can't hold back on the choices I made that dayI've come to accept
The things that I see
I've read every word, every line, everything...
Just say what you will
Just tell me I'm scared
I won't let you down for the moment I'm in...If it happens it happens and I'll feel the same
Can't hold back on the choices I made...
If it happens it happens and I'll be the same
Can't hold back on the choices I made that day
