

4 Am (feat. Lee Lonn)

Chamillionaire

You know where I be at on the daylight
Studio sessions getting crazy
But you keep it real
We ain't having no party
See I just wanna make it
And know one day I be the greatest
So I'm in here still
Instead of rocking your body
Guess I don't know how to hit direct
I chase success and nothing less
So I'm telling there's nothing that I gotta suffer now
It's 4am the reason why I won't princess
I'm in the studion in atlanta
Chasing the bread instead of in your bed
It's 4am and I'm recording this music
You keep asking me what I'm doing
Could be with you instead
I'm in the studio at 4am
See the club be hotter than hell
The studio is like heaven
I could be making it rain
I'd rather make what I'm selling
So they actually better be getting
More aspirin and xcedrine
Cause the truth is back to dispute most of these lies they actually be telling
When I'm backing up a new session
Just say church and give me your blessing
They told me money don't talk
So why been racking up the confessions
See broke ain't never been player
Don't ask me what I'm out getting
You the type of girl that love money
I guess we'll double date at our wedding
But of all the things that I got I'm like more time I wish that I had
To put on a show for ya like justin
And rip that from off ya like janet
Yea I know ya wish that I call sometimes
With someting really romantic
Ain't seen the movie but heard it was romance that's on the titanic and it's

Hmmmmmm, 4am
Hmmmmmmmmm, could be with you instead
I'm in the studio at 4am At the studio like I do
Then hit the streets and learn to respect
Cause I feel like this is my time
And I feel like no one else can have next
Got dreams of chasing success
And I feel like everybody got vexed
That I won't be able to get what I get
They don't have to cash a rain check
See it's way too late for that lust
When ya got more ways of making more bucks
In the bottom of your jean pockets
And pull out less than 1 or 2 what
I'm like too much is never enough
See they underestimate me too much
So I think it's time to switch up my gear
I don't mean my clothes I need a new clutch
And they say in money we trust
But to tell the truth I only trust me
If you think your money is loyal
Then I'll come take it all while you sleep
Then uncle sam can look at it
And let's just see how much that I keep
So tonight the studios where I'm at
And after that I gotta repeat
I'm like
