Away from You

The O.C. Supertones

Say, you got a minute friend?
Because I'd like to tell you something
You may think nothing of it
But wait, you're gonna love itWhat if I told you I held
The one true philosophy?
Would you hear me out
Or just turn your back and laugh at me?Lord, I just don't understand
This strange creature You call man
Who thinks he lives by his own hand but I know
There's no life away from YouSo I will remain still and silent
For fear of the words I might say
And am I still in my defiance
When I'm trying so hard to obey?
