

Kiss Me a Thousand Times

RAIN

Oh, you look at me like I'm trouble...

I can't tear my eyes away.

If we take this breath with each other,

Will we share

Something we can't explain?

Faces buried in the pillow...

Looking for something to follow...

But there is nothing that money can buy...

When you give every moment that you have to desire.

All you gotta do is kiss me,

And I'll get by...

Don't leave me.

All you gotta do is kiss me

A thousand times...

Don't leave me,

To realize this lie.

Oh, you whisper words with no meaning...

I can't fake what you fear.

Before I could look at you, even...

I saw heaven laid out,

Here next to me.

Bodies buried in each other...

Two secrets kept under cover...

There is something that we cannot reach,

If we hide from the truth and forget to flee.
