

Decency

Balthazar

We take the moon right from the sky
Yeah take it down, cage it in, left forsaken lie
Yes we've been rats
Just long enough
Nothing but chewing on those strings of loveWhile the moon slips out the door
Keep asking back for more
It's what we came here for
She won't see us any more
Now what will we sing
What is it we'll shout out for
Or leave this trace
We're on the run
We'll keep our ways
Hide from the one
Yes we've been rats for quite a whileWhile the moon slips out the door
keep asking back for more
It's what we came here for
She won't see us any more
Now what will we sing
What is it we'll shout out for
The porridge is starting to mold
the porridge is starting to mold
Where we heading
Where we headingYes we've been rats for quite a while Lacking of decency and style
