

The Change

The Suicide Machines

[Chorus]

Hey you know that things can't stay the same Hey don't be afraid to make the change
Hey don't be afraid to make the change Everyone's telling you you've gotta stand tall Just stick to what you know and you know you'll never fall I guess that I can say there's some truth in what they're saying have no fear move on and stop delaying [Chorus]
As much as we'd like things to always stay the same there comes a time in everyone's life when we feel strange doing the same old things again the same way we've gotta break away to something new we'll do it someday [Chorus: x2] As time goes on everything and everyone changes [Chorus: x4]
