Cold War Love

Black Star Riders

Where is the woman that I love?
Send out the ravens before the doves
Don't tell my father, my mother
My daughter, my son
Where is the woman that I love?
Where is the woman that I love?Where is the woman that I love?
When all is said and all is done
Don't tell my father my mother
My daughter my son
Where is the woman that I love?
Where is the woman that I love?
Where is the woman that I love?
Where is the woman that I love?
Why don't you come back to the war
Why don't you come back and even the score
Why don't you come back to the war
'Cause I believe that what we've got is worth fighting forWhere is the woman that I love?
I'll make sorry good enough
Don't tell my father, my mother
My daughter, my son
Where is the woman that I love?
Where is the woman that I love?Why don't you come back to the war
Why don't you come back and even the score
Why don't you come back to the war
'Cause I believe that what we've got is worth fighting forI'm running through this midnight jungle
We do crazy things when we're haunted
All those memories lost in time, like tears in the rain
I gotta get her back so I can explain
Where is the woman that I love?
Send out the ravens and the doves
Please help me my father please help me my mother
I'm doneWhy don't you come back to the war
Why don't you come back and even the score
Why don't you come back to the war
'Cause I believe that what we've got is worth fighting for
