

Bring It on Home

Little Big Town

You've got someone here
Wants to make it all right
Someone to love you more than life
Right here
You got willing arms that'll hold you tight
A hand to lead you all through the night
I know your heart can get all tangled up inside
But don't you keep it to yourself When your long day is over
And you can barely drag your feet
The weight of the world
Is on your shoulders
I know what you need
Bring it on home to me You know I know you
Like the back of my hand
But you know I'm gonna do all that I can
Right here
Gonna lie with you
Till you fall asleep
When the morning comes I'm still gonna be right here
Oh Yes, I am
(Oh)
Take your worries and just drop them at the door
Baby, leave it all behind When your long day is over
And you can barely drag your feet
The weight of the world
Is on your shoulders
I know what you need
Bring it on home to me Baby, let me be your safe harbor
Don't let the water come
And carry you away When your long day is over
And you can barely drag your feet
The weight of the world
Is on your shoulders
I know what you need
Bring it on home to me Oh, bring it on home
Yeah, bring it on home to me
Home to me
Oh, bring it on, bring it on home to me You got someone here wants to make it all right

Someone who loves you more than life
