

Kiss The Haze

House Of Fools

Kiss the haze, go ahead it
Will brighten up your days
It can't be wrong
If it makes you feel so right Walk the line, go ahead
It will surely blow your mind
You can show them what
We're all about
(What we're all about) Take a minute just to get away
The perfect time
To plan your big mistake And your head starts to spin
And your teeth get numb
The black sky burns
As it swallows the sun
This high won't last forever
Get your head together Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa Well, the day goes by so slow
When you've got four more to go
And you left your head in the radio
Too much time to think of what to think about
I can't find a reason to let it all out No one has anything good to say
Close your eyes and make them go away
Can you make them go away? Living lies inside the Devil's eyes
Beneath the cloaks he holds your paradise And your head starts to spin
And your teeth get numb
The black sky burns
As it swallows the sun
This high won't last forever
Get your head together
