

The Senator's Daughter

Fountains of Wayne

Hockey teams have playoff dreams
Teenage girls read magazines
No one hears the desperate screams
Of the techno DJ, what does he say? He say, sha la la la la la
He say, sha la la la la la I'm floating away
On oceans of gray, blue water
I'm rising above, I'm falling in love
With the senator's daughter I'm floating away
On oceans of gray, blue water
I'm rising above, I'm falling in love
With the senator's daughter Crossing guards star traffic jams
Soccer moms drive minivans
No one sees the anchor man
On the instant replay, what does she say? She say, sha la la la la la
She say, sha la la la la la I'm floating away
On oceans of gray, blue water
I'm rising above, I'm falling in love
With the senator's daughter I'm floating away
On oceans of gray, blue water
I'm rising above, I'm falling in love
With the senator's daughter
