

Gone And Never Coming Back

Melanie Fiona

Sad that memories never die, just fill your head with why
Then you're caught living a lie again
It's sad that all he ever said was that he loved me to death
But that he's gone again and I was wrong again
'Cause you think it's easier, easy like that
Just when I wasn't finished, you were gone like that
Can't you hear me crying 'cause I need you back
'Cause I'm slowly dying 'cause I need you bad
But you're gone and never coming back
Gone and not coming back, he's never coming back
Should've known the long kiss goodbye
Would bring sadness in my life wearing this disguise again
I wish that you would've said or lied to me instead
Like a bullet to my head, like a fool I pretend
That it's on again, on again
'Cause you think it's easier, easy like that
Just when I wasn't finished, you were gone like that
Can't you hear me crying 'cause I need you back
And I'm slowly dying 'cause I need you bad
'Cause you're gone and never coming back
Gone and not coming back, he's never coming back
Whoever said look on the brighter side has never been on mine
Whoever said that he'll get his never felt like this Ain't no use in crying when you're done like that
'Cause baby, baby you took something that I can't buy back
And now you're gone and never coming back, coming back
Oh, he's not coming back
