Thank You Jesus

Keith Green

Thank you Jesus, for what You're doing for me
Thank you Jesus, I want the whole world to see
That You're not just a picture on the wall in my room
That You're faster than lightning and You're coming back soonThank you Jesus, for all the good things You do
Thank you Jesus, I wish they all could know You
That You're not just a book collecting dust on the shelf
And if they don't want to read it
You're gonna be back to tell them YourselfI don't understand, why my fellow man
Had to turn away from all the good things that You say
They're still trying to find a better way, but You know they won't
Unless they invent one, then we'll have to patent itThank you Jesus, for all the good things You've done
Thank you Jesus, I really want to tell You Lord
I'm having so much fun loving You
Thank you Jesus, for this here smile on my faceThank you Jesus I really want to shout it to the whole human race
That You're not just this building on the corner where we meet
They can know You in person, You're a pleasure to meet
Thank you Jesus, Lord, thank you JesusOh thank you Jesus, I only want to thank you Jesus
I don't care what they say
They're gonna call You a cliche
I'm gonna love you anyway
