Angel Don't Cry

Toto

Uncanny woman you weaved your spell on me
I was taken by the look in your eyes for all the wrong reasons
You must have been a spiteful child full of anger
Raised by the hand of a duchess, a mother, and a heathen
You laid your tender trap of crystals and wine
Your neck was sweetly laced with a scent I did not mind
I can't lie, I can't lie
I can't lie, I can't lie
Angel don't cry
Angel don't cry
Queen of darkness, you got your way with me
You caressed ev'ry part of my soul
You got what you were after a savage and an angel
You innocently hunger for love
Still shivering from the coldness of your laughter
You laid your tender trap of crystal and wine
Your neck was sweetly laced with a scent I did not mind
I can't lie, I can't lie
I can't lie, I can't lie
Angel don't cry
Angel don't cry
No, angel don't cry
Angel don't cry
No, no, no
You laid your tender trap of crystals and wine
Your neck was sweetly laced with a scent I did not mind
I can't lie, I can't lie
I can't lie, I can't lie
Angel don't cry
Angel don't cry
Angel don't cry
No, no, no
Angel don't you cry
