

Jealousy

Fan Death

Don't look away when we lock eyes,
Don't pretend, do not disguise, that glance towards the girl walking by.
Don't look away when we embrace,
And don't disguise, for I can trace, that glance towards the girl walking by. I've gotten used to romances.
And you're not, you're looking at your chances.
To look away, to look away
X2 No fleeting looks caught on the sky
And don't drift off, don't even try
And don't you underestimate my jealousy
Don't look away when I walk with you someone new.
And don't you underestimate my jealousy I've gotten used to romances.
And you're not, you're looking at your chances.
To look away, to look away
X4
