

Don't Stop Believin'

Northern Kings

Just a small town girl, living in a lonely world
She took the midnight train going anywhere
Just a city boy, born and raised in South Detroit
He took the midnight train going anywhereA singer in a smokey room
A smell of wine and cheap perfume
For a smile, they can share the night
It goes on and on and on and onStrangers waiting, up and down the boulevard
Their shadows searching in the night
Streetlight people, living just to find emotion
Hiding, somewhere in the nightWorking hard to get my fill
Everybody wants a thrill
Paying anything to roll the dice
Just one more timeSome will win, some will lose
Some were born to sing the blues
Oh, the movie never ends
It goes on and on and on and onDon't stop believin'
Hold on to the feelin'
Streetlight people
