Haunting

Threat Signal

Aggression is burning
It fuels my own obsessions
The blood drains out
Inspires my inspiration

I can't breathe
I'm trapped, in concrete
Close my eyes, kill me, in my sleep
I'm just a number to them

Erratic pulses, surge
My mind in tension bleeding incisions
Restrained into submission

I can't breathe, I'm trapped, in concrete
Close my eyes, kill me, in my sleep
I'm just a number to them
The riotous are forced

Into exile, I'm not alone
Reaching the end in this cage
I can't hold on all that was me
I've come to be where I belong
I am prepared to die
