

C`mon

The Runaways

Don't turn away, I know you feel it
If you want me love, you don't have to steal it
Your eyes they beg, the tears you fashion up
Gonna get involved in the nature of loveC'mon, c'mon
You know you make me want you
C'mon, oh, c'monIt's getting late, we made a start now
I can't talk about that love anyhow
Your eyes are wide, your body's shakin'
I got the hives my soul is achin'C'mon, c'mon
You know you make me want you
C'mon, oh c'monHot throat, to race this love I have You're one of a kind, don't want no other
Love is your thing you keep my style
Clean me out with an easy smileC'mon, c'mon
You know you make me want you
C'mon, oh c'mon
