

Sun Leads Me On

Half Moon Run

Well I'm gone, where the sun leads me on
Where I'm bound to ginger tea and sickly dawns
Where I always disappear, but I'm never really gone
Yes I'm going, where the sun leads me onI would loathe to lose anything
I have chosen to refuse many thingsYes I'm leaving
Til the sun brings me home
Til I'm no longer lost just free to roam
And in it's light may I never be alone
Cause I'll be going til the sun brings be homeI would loathe to lose anything
I have hose to refuse many things
