The Hunters

I used to think these city lights were pretty,
But now I'd rather see the smiles around me.Am I still the same and it's everything that changed?
Am I still the same or am I fucking everything up?If I was looking for money, I wouldn't sing.
I want to be there for the ones I love.Am I still the same and it's everything that changed?
Am I still the same or am I fucking everything up?
