Right Beside Me

Tim Timmons

I always heard that life would not be easy
I always knew that these days would come
But in these moments when I feel afraid
My vision starts to fade
I'm here in the cold, in the dark
Though You seem far away, You whisper my name
So I fix my eyes, fix my eyes on You
I put my hope, put my hope in You
I can brave the storm, I can walk the sea
I can step out on the waves because You're with me
I can overcome, I can walk in peace
When it all seems lost You are right beside me
My heart is weary from the constant struggle
My body's weak from my tattered dreams
And all the things I know and hold so dear
Keep sinking like the stones
I'm here in the cold, in the dark
Oh, I'm overwhelmed, but I'm not alone
As I fix me eyes, fix my eyes on You
I put my hope, put my hope in You
Oh, You've gone before
You've led me through a thousand storms
I never walked alone
Cause You've been right beside me
Oh, in You I'm strong
Your love is where my fear is gone
I'll never walk alone
Cause You've been right beside me
