Valentines Day

Capital Theory

I get up, I wash my face
You don't belive in anything I say
So I pack my stuff and leave
I'm your eastcoast liar with a heart full of shame,
Yeah!

Some play hard to get, I play hard to want
And she's alright though she stays up all night
Mr Clean said: Can I get you something
I said: don't bring me nothing but a heart full of Shame, yeah!

Aw! You're putting me down
You can kill with a wink in your eye
I don't lie cos I care about you
I just fail everytime that I try
She said; Aw! you're putting me down
When you kill with a wink in your eye...

You break my heart valentine
On valentines day

I'm sorry I was to hung over to call
When protein pills are enough to get you down

And she got mad so she must've gotten my point
Us eastcoast liars all got hearts full of shame, yeah!

She went a way to catch a glimpse of the sea
And I don't mind if she just let's me be
Maybe we both got a story to tell
It's not the first time I hurt you but it's the last
Time!
Aw! You're putting me down
You can kill with a wink in your eye
I don't lie cos I care about you
I just fail everytime that I try
She said; Aw! you're putting me down
When you kill with a wink in your eye...

You break my heart valentine
On valentines day
You break my heart valentine
On valentines day
You break my heart valentine
On valentines day
