The Cool Kids

Hey yo I walk through, boppin' man, cooler than the fan
With my new school sneaker and my old school Vans
Take a past with the future and, suture 'em together, like a tailor with a needle, shoe maker with the leather
Not hear to rap about gear or the wrap around
I got these chicks, and my pinkym they grippin'
Keep all my kicks in they case thats glass, aye
At the coner of the table like ash tray
Class Nikes give me braggin' rights
I got a pair that he ain't seen since about nine-three
And they all authentics so obviously niggas tryna rob me, but that could be a problem
