

Shepherd Of Fire

Avenged Sevenfold

Lets take a moment and break the ice
So my intentions are known
See I pity in watchin you suffer
I know the feeling of feeling of being damned alone
I have a storybook of my own Don't you see I am your pride
Agent of will
Bearer of needs
And you know what's right
I am your war
I'm in strong
Aiming the weak
Know me by name
Shephard of fire Well I can promise you paradise
No need to serve on your knees
And when you're lost in the darkest of hours
Take a moment and tell me who you see
Wont tell ya who not to be Now you know I am your pride
Agent of will
Bearer of needs
And you know what's right
I am your war
I'm in strong
Aimin the weak
Know me by name
Shephard of fire Deciple of the cross and champion of the suffering
Emerse yourself in the kingdom of redemption
Pardon your mind through the chains of the divine
Make way for the shephard of fire Through the ages of time
I've been known for my hate
But I'm a dealer of sinful choices
For me it's never too late I am your pride
Agent of will
Bearer of needs
And you know what's right
I am your war
I'm in strong
Aimin the weak
Know me by name
Shephard of fire I am your wrath

I am your guilt
I am your lust
And you know it's right
I am your love
I am your stall
I am your trust Know me by name
Shepherd of fire
