

Chasing Rabbits

Bonsai Nation

Despite what we think and what we might know
There's no telling what goes on way down deep inside the rabbit hole
Ground far too fine for this mind of mine
Something keeps her turning while we're sitting here defining life

'Cuz I am ready to move on
To a place that we can be completely free
And I have to speculate
That we're not ready as a society

Here and there, always everywhere
Something knows you're watching and it plays along with what we define
How far down the line until we get that sign
Stuck forever learning, never knowing what we fail to see

'Cuz I am ready to move on
To a place that we can be completely free
And I have to speculate
That we're not ready as a society

And I am ready to move on
To a place that we can be completely free
So why did you knock on my door
And tell me something that I've never heard before?

'Cuz I am ready to move on
To a place that we can be completely free
So why did you knock on my door
And tell me something that I've never heard before?
