Kalopsia

The Blizzard

I never lie
To myself
TonightRose-tinted eyes
Colour my sorrow
A shade of wine
Bye bye black balloon
I'll see ya real soon
Wave bye byeOh, why you sad?
What have they done?
Forget those mindless baboons,
They're off playing godCopycats in cheap suits are playing it safe
While cannibals of bad news consume the paradeIs it wonderful?(Kalopsia)Far, far from shore
The land of nightmares, gone... forever moreI love you more than I can control
I don't even try. Why would I?Oh, why the long face? You've got it all wrong
Forget the rat in the race, We'll choke chain them all
Fates favor the one who help themselves
The rest feel the sting of the lash as they Row.....the boat to HellRow.
