Wonderful

Janet Devlin

I wanna let you in
Let me introduce you to my skeletons
Get underneath my skin
We can always dive into irrelevanceDriving round their houses
Finding open doors
Walk into my secrets
There is so much more, oh-ohIt could be wonderful
It could be wonderful
We could be vulnerable
It could be wonderfulI wanna let you in
Through the looking glass I'll show you everything
Would it be a sin
If I let you be my medicineDriving round their houses
Finding open doors
Walk into my secrets
There is so much more, oh-ohIt could be wonderful
It could be wonderful
We could be vulnerable
It could be wonderfulIt could be wonderful
It could be wonderful
We could be vulnerable
It could be wonderfulGet underneath my skin
I wanna let you in
You'll be my skeleton
It could be wonderful (x4)It could be wonderful
It could be wonderful
We could be vulnerable
It could be wonderfulIt could be wonderful
It could be wonderful
We could be vulnerable
It could be wonderful
