

Different Sides

A Telemetry

crossing the line
so clearly drawn
but few abide

toss up moments
propped so strait
a paper clown

it serves no one well
it curves someone's hell
to enlist one man's word serves a purpose so absurd building it up - breaking point so ripe bleeding it down - situation unwound different sides - different sides

the same story
different sides - different sides

ignore the trend
of robotic narrow
minded ends

seek resolve
of those inner bit-ions controlling it all

it fills know-one's need
it kills all you feed
to exist in a vacuum
makes quick construction of a tomb building it up - bubble sure to burst bleeding it down - deformation the curse

sort out perceptions of those devastating views look not to banish
but to cradle what comes through
