

Johnny's Revenge

Crown the Empire

(Oh, look what we have here, boys!
Everybody give a warm welcome to Johnny!
What do you say we show Johnny a thing or two
About what it's like to die?)How could this really have happened
One second life was looking good
The next I'm on my way down
I thought my story had ended
But if this hell is where I'm trapped
Then I will seek my revengeI've come for blood, blood, blood
And I'm not leaving 'till I have your heart
You're going to pay for all that you have done, done, done
I'll feel alive when I have blood, your blood
Blood, your blood
Because revenge is all I haven't lostYou thought I was through
You may have killed me but now I'll come for you
You thought I was through
But that was far from your first mistakeI have a twisted mind
And I have seen your fate
You think the end is close for you
When really you're fucking late
Your reign is over
There's no forgiveness
There's no forgiveness for all that you've doneI've come for blood, blood, blood
And I'm not leaving 'till I have your heart
You're going to pay for all that you have done, done, done
I'll feel alive when I have blood, your blood
Blood, your bloodBecause revenge is all I haven't lost
You've taken everything I've ever loved
So give me blood, blood, blood
I'll feel alive when I have blood, your blood
Blood, your bloodI want it all (2x)See the way your blood spills on the floor
But then before my eyes he turned into a man
I've been fooled again (2x)You are just a slave
You've dug your bed deep inside of your grave
Now sleep, you will sleep for eternity
For eternityI've come for blood, blood, blood
And I'm not leaving 'till I have your heart
You're going to pay for all that you have done, done, done
I'll feel alive when I have blood, your blood

Blood, your bloodBecause revenge is all I haven't lost
You've taken everything I've ever loved
So give me blood, blood, blood
I'll feel alive when I have blood, your blood
Blood, your bloodI want it all
