Flannel Is The Color Of My Energy

Four Year Strong

I think I'm having a heart attack
Another full blown arrest of the cardiac
Got to get it under control
'Cause this whole thing's gonna take me down
Still I'm bound to end up six feet under the ground
Under the ground and I'll take you with me if I go down
'Cause I don't want to live a day
Without a piece of you to keep me company
'Cause I've always had the trouble with authorities
Still breathing down your neck as a priority
'Cause I don't want to live another day without your company
I think I'm talking us half to death so let me take a breath
So I can learn a little more about you, I can't hear thing
You're breaking up, you're breaking up, did you fall asleep?
'Cause I won't sleep or wake at all while I lie wondering why
Every time I wake up I just find you sleeping in
What to make of my situation destined to end this way
Hand me the crown, hand me the crown
And I'll take you with me if I go down
'Cause I don't want to live a day
Without a piece of you to keep me company
'Cause I've always had the trouble with authorities
Still breathing down your neck as a priority
'Cause I don't want to live another day without your company
Feel the earthquake beneath you
As I slowly disappear in each wake
Feel your bones break
As I pull you in closer and closer
Until I find the right piece of you to take
'Cause I don't want to live a day
Without a piece of you to keep me company
'Cause I've always had the trouble with authorities
Still breathing down your neck as a priority
'Cause I don't want to live another day without your company
'Cause I don't want to live a day
I don't want to live a day
Without a piece of you to keep me company
A piece of you, a piece of you
'Cause I've always had the trouble with authorities

Still breathing down your neck as a priority
'Cause I don't want to live another day without your company
