

One Silver Dollar

Marilyn Monroe

One silver dollar
Bright silver dollar
Changing hands
Changing handsEndlessly rolling
Wasted and stolen
Changing hands
Changing handsSpent for a beer he's drinking
Won by a gamblers lust
Pierced by an outlaw's bullet
And lost in the blood red dustOne silver dollar
Worn silver dollar
Changing hands
Changing handsLove is a shining dollar
Bright as a church bell's chime
Gambled and spent and wasted
And lost in a dawn of timeOne silver dollar
Worn silver dollar
Changing hearts
Changing lives
Changing hands
