

All of Me (feat. KJ-52)

Curt Anderson

You've got into my soul like no other
You're the water to my shore
The way you love I won't find with another
So all of me is yours Where do I begin as I start just to think of it
You left a mark on my heart like a fingerprint
Cut through the dark with a spark, I remember when I was falling all apart but then your finger grips
Snatched me out of the depths of my predicament
I was on the edge of the ledge, pushed to the brink of it
I had control but I was scared to relinquish it
Then you got into my soul so I'm singing this You've got into my soul like no other
You're the water to my shore
The way you love I won't find with another
So all of me is yours You got it all from the biggest to the little bit
Just from my heart to my soul to my ligaments
The path I chose, it was darker than some licorice
And every door had to close to make an end of it
So I suppose as I think back and reminisce
That when you die, push your rose
Did you finish it
I'm pressing farther to my goal and it's evident
The water to my shore, that's all you've ever been You've got into my soul like no other
You're the water to my shore
The way you love I won't find with another
So all of me is yours Oh when I'm
Out of sight against the night
You're the one who brings me light
Forever my love, you're my love
And when I've
Gone away, pushed the rose
To the world, keep shining light
Forever my love, you're my love You've got into my soul like no other
You're the water to my shore
The way you love I won't find with another
So all of me is yours
