Rage Days

Violet Indiana

Here I sit, I'm strong
'Cause I belong
In the flames, where I'm safe
From your words, as you degrade meBut I'm saved from this maze
Of your doubt, you were cruel to me
I was a fool and your rage
Is the end, take your pain from meWhat's it got to do, with any part of you
What I'm gonna do, to get over you
What's it got to do, any part of you
I let myself, get too close to youWhat's it got to do, with any part of you
What I'm gonna do, to get over you
What's it got to do, any part of you
I let myself, go too close to youYour shame and your blame
Your failure and your fame
Impressed, you're depressed
Emotionally undressedYou were a wreck, I was your fool
Now I see through you
I'm not the same, take your pain
And this blame away from meWhat's it got to do, with any part of you
What I'm gonna do, to get over you
What's it got to do, any part of you
I let myself, go too close to youWhat's it got to do, with any part of you
What I'm gonna do, to get over you
What's it got to do, any part of you
I let myself, go too close to youIt's just shame and pain
It's always the same
Shame and painJust shame and pain
It's always the same
Shame and painJust shame and pain
It's always the same
[Incomprehensible]Just shame and pain
It's always the same
[Incomprehensible]Just shame and pain
It's always the same
